

FOURTH WING

Chapters 1-8

Why do many of the characters doubt Violet's ability to survive the Riders quadrant?

-  Violet hates violence and would never hurt someone intentionally.
-  Violet has never had any combat training.
-  Violet is small and easily hurt.
-  Violet herself doesn't believe she can survive.

Why does Violet begin to poison her combat training opponents?

-  She wants to intimidate her squadmates.
-  She wants to get promoted to a leadership position.
-  She is physically weaker than them.
-  She wants to kill her opponents.

Why does Violet hide her knee injury on the parapet from her squadmates?

-  She does not want to appear weak.
-  She does not want Xaden to target her.
-  She does not want Dain to worry about her.
-  She does not want to share her healing supplies.

What motivates Violet to stay alive in her hardest moments?

-  She wants to prove her mother right.
-  She wants to show her doubters she is a survivor.
-  She does not want to leave Mira as an only child.
-  She wants to marry Dain.

What is the first defining moment that Violet is shown to be a compassionate and self-sacrificing character?

-  When she does not kill Jack Barlowe on the parapet.
-  When she hides her brother's notebook.
-  When she says goodbye to her sister Mira.
-  When she shares her boots with Rhiannon.

FOURTH WING

Chapters 9-16

What does Violet say Scribes have that Riders do not?

- Intelligence.
- Sympathy.
- History.
- Knowledge.

Who gives Violet the idea to try and outsmart the obstacles on the Gauntlet?

- Rhiannon.
- Dain.
- Xaden.
- Liam.

How does Violet react to being chosen by Tairn as his rider?

- She thanks him for choosing her.
- She says she wants to be chosen by Adarna instead.
- She tells him not to pick her.
- She is terrified and runs away.

What does Tairn say is a more important trait than physical strength?

- Compassion.
- Intelligence.
- Status.
- Courage.

Why does Adarna, the baby dragon, get targeted and attacked?

- They want to take her scales to make armor.
- She is seen as too weak.
- They want to take advantage of her powers.
- She is seen as too powerful.

FOURTH WING

Chapters 17-24

Why does Xaden say he wants Violet to have a bodyguard?

- He fears if she dies, he will too.
- He thinks Violet is going to run away to find Mira.
- He knows Violet will not stand up for herself if she is attacked again.
- He has feelings for her.

How does Violet survive the assassination attempt?

- She kills the assailants.
- Andarna freezes time.
- Tairn breathes fire at them.
- Dain finds her.

What magical power, or signet, has been declared illegal by the Navarrian government?

- Teleportation.
- Lightning.
- Mind reading.
- Shadow wielding.

How does Violet survive her fighting match against Jack Barlowe?

- Xaden fights him instead.
- She trains with Imogen.
- She poisons him.
- Dain interferes.

Where did the fables come from that Violet's father used to tell her about?

- Tyrrendor.
- The Barren.
- Navarre.
- Poromiel.

FOURTH WING

Chapters 25-31

What do the professors say about the attack on Montserrat?

- They say it was an attack by Poromiel.
- They say it may have been venin and wyvern.
- They do not address it.
- They say it was a successful battle for Navarre.

What does Xaden say each person's signet means about them?

- It is representative of where they grew up.
- It is reflective of their personality.
- It is the power they desire most.
- It is their greatest fear.

Why does Violet save Liam's life during the War Games?

- She does not want to give Jack Barlowe a confirmed kill.
- She does not want to lose the competition.
- She has fallen in love with him.
- She is loyal to her friends.

What does Violet worry will happen at the War Games?

- Xaden will see her fail.
- The saddle will break.
- They will lose the competition.
- Jack Barlowe will kill her.

Who is Mira standoffish towards at Montserrat?

- Violet.
- Xaden.
- Dain.
- The cadets with relic marks.

FOURTH WING

Chapters 31-25

How did Violet know what venin were before Athebyne?

- Her father's storybook.
- Her mother's classified reports.
- She saw them at Montserrat.
- Xaden told her about them.

Who saves Violet's life in the battle at Athebyne?

- Xaden.
- Dain.
- Liam.
- Andarna.

Who does Violet blame for Liam's death?

- The venin.
- Xaden.
- Liam.
- Herself.

Who narrates the final chapter of the novel?

- Violet.
- Tairn.
- Andarna.
- Xaden.

What feeling does Violet lose for Xaden after she learns he has not told her the truth about the war?

- Attraction.
- Trust.
- Love.
- Kindness.